

Hi Daniyal,

I hope all is well. This is Maryam from the Streamly Development Team and I'm excited to share with you an agenda for our upcoming meeting, 5 April 2026. The goal of this meeting will be to walk you through our approach for our testing plan, expecting some feedback and approval.

Agenda:

- * Overview of our proposed testing plan.
- * A review our our planned test cases (Unit, Integration and System testing)
- * Explaining our testing approaches
- * Presenting proposed test cases
- * Demonstration of a build script
- * Overview of our documentation
- * And a review of our final features remaining

We look forward to your feedback as well as you input on the final feature requirements. Please let us know if there is anything you would like us to add or adjust ahead of the meeting.

Best regards,

Maryam

Streamly Development Team
